Strikers Display Defiance

More Troops Called Out

(Compiled From Wire Services)

SOUTH ST. PAUL, Minn. —National guardsmen with fixed bayonets held back a surly crowd of about 500 persons here today as automobiles containing workers followed by more than a score of military vehicles carrying soldiers moved into the strikebound Swift and company packing plant.

Guardsmen broke up one scuffle quickly when a man in the crowd attempted to seize a soldier's rifle.

Persons in the crowd shouted boos, curses and catcalls. Some sang the national anthem mockingly. A small detachment of guardsmen on duty when the first automobiles of workers started moving into the plant were quickly reinforced.

More than 25 automobiles loaded with workers moved into the plant in quick succession. The crowd lining the edge of Grand avenue near the Swift plant entrance shouted threats and surged forward as the workers drove by.

THREE PLANTS GUARDED

Detachments of guardsmen were bivouacked at the Cudahy plant at Newport, Minn., and the Swift and Armour plants at South St. Paul. The troops moved in trains of trucks, weapons carriers and other motorized equipment.

Outbreaks of violence have occurred at both plants. Thursday night about 200 raiders broke into the Cudahy plant to slug workers and create damage.

Earlier that day pickets at the Swift plant beat back police who tried to open their lines. Officers were trying to enforce a court order that the pickets cut their numbers—then several hundred—to ten and stop blocking streets.

CIO United Packinghouse Workers employed in the two towns by the Swift, Armour and Cudahy meat packing companies have been on strike for higher pay since March 16.

A total of 1,200 guardsmen are stationed at the three plants with a total of about 130 vehicles—half tracks, armored reconnaissance cars and jeeps.

The guardsmen are armed with carbines and machineguns. Inside the plants, and in full view, machineguns have been set up and trained on the gates.

Taft's Ballot Fight Costly

COLUMBUS—(AP)—Sen. Robert A. Taft's campaign for Republican presidential delegates cost two financing organizations $164,857 in the recent Ohio primary.

The organizations reported to the secretary of state yesterday that they spent a total of $147,963 and have unpaid bills aggregating $16,894.

Senator Taft won 44 of the state's GOP convention delegates. Former Governor Harold E. Stassen of Minnesota won nine.

The Ohio Republican campaign committee said it received $98,530 and spent $98,018. The Ohio Taft for President club said it received $50,001 and spent $49,945, with bills unpaid of $16,894. The club said $43,500 of its receipts came from the national Taft for President club.

The filing deadline passed at 6:30 p. m. last night without receipt of reports from campaign committees of former Gov. Frank J. Lausche or Ray T. Miller, both of Cleveland, the secretary of state said.

Lausche defeated Miller for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

Orphans Aided

CINCINNATI—(INS)—Hamilton county orphanages will receive properties worth $750,000 from the estate of late State Senator Robert J. O'Brien. O'Brien directed in his will that holdings be used to establish a Robert J. O'Brien orphan fund.

Highways Require Planning

Building highways is no one-man job. The Sunday News-Journal takes you behind the scenes at the state highway department's division offices in Ashland to disclose the planning involved in building a highway project.

"Who spends the paychecks in your family?" That's the question the N-J "forum" reporter asked six typical Mansfielders. You'll find the answers Sunday.

Other highlights of the Sunday N-J include a fascinating feature on a heretofore undisclosed phase of the late, unlamented Al Capone; the story of an Oregon city which hasn't any fuel bills, and an article on how the GI Bill of Rights has affected the nation's educational picture.

Clean Bill Returned In Vote Probe

Election Board Finds No Irregularities

Investigating reports of irregularities in the primary election in Mansfield May 4, the Richland county election board said after a closed meeting last night that nothing was found to implicate anyone.

The meeting was closed to the press when reporters said they could not sit in at a meeting at which they would have to pledge that proceedings would be "off the record."

After the meeting, which lasted approximately an hour and 20 minutes, Board Chairman George Innes reported the board had found no evidence of irregularities.

Innes declined to say what the board was investigating or how the matter came to his attention. He called the special meeting yesterday.

He said the "matter is absolutely closed and no further meetings would be held." The board closed the meeting after discussion in which members said the hearing might implicate persons unjustly.

Motion to close the meeting was offered by Earl A. McFarland, Republican, and seconded by Mrs. Marie Bell, Democratic member.

Prosecutor Theodore Lutz, who attended, offered the opinion that the board could close the meeting if it desired.

George Williams, Republican member, did not attend because of illness.

Others at the meeting were Board Clerk Thomas R. Zeigler and Deputy Clerk Walter Underwood. A presiding judge of a Mansfield precinct was also present, but she was not implicated in any way, The News-Journal learned

Cloudy Skies Greet Straw Hat Season

Today's the day to shove that winter-worn felt into the moth balls, men.

Fashion decrees that the lid shall be straw from now until Labor day. Mansfield merchants report they're all set for a "run" on the lighter skimmers.

Although the weatherman wasn't too cooperative for the opening of the Straw Hat season today, indications were that Sunday afternoon skies will be sunny and the temperatures mild.

Russians Open Dairen to U. S.

SHANGHAI —(AP)— Russia unexpectedly granted American consular personnel visas to enter Dairen late today.

The northeast China port was seized by the Russians at war's end and all but a few foreigners have been denied entry. Consular officials have been waiting here for months for visas.

HOTEL SLAYER SENTENCED

CLEVELAND—(AP)—Richard M. Mullee, 26, faced a one to 20-year prison term today for the hotel room slaying of Mrs. Viola Zinn, 39. Mullee was convicted yesterday of manslaughter by a common pleas jury.

LEAVE FOR ROME—Dr. and Mrs. L. D. Bonar set a "first" last night for the Mansfield municipal airport. They boarded a TWA plane for New York and Rome, Italy. It was the first flight for a foreign airport to originate in Mansfield although some passengers have landed in Mansfield on flights originating abroad. Dr. Bonar, gynecologist and obstetrician, will attend the International College of Surgeons convention in Rome, opening Tuesday. He and Mrs. Bonar rested in New York today, preparatory to boarding a Rome-bound TWA Constellation Sunday at 10 a. m. They are due in Rome Monday at 3 p. m.—(News-Journal photo)

Seeks Draft Compromise

Racial Issue Slows Measure

WASHINGTON —(INS—) The administration attempted today to work out a compromise on the racial segregation issue in the Senate's military draft-training bill, now set back a week by the GOP leadership.

Sen. Russell (D-Ga), sponsor of the controversial amendment to the manpower bill, said he already had received a number of alternative "suggestions" but added:

"They all amount practically to total surrender."

The amendment, also backed by Sen. Maybank (D-S.C.) would guarantee an inductee, upon his request, the right to serve in a unit composed entirely of members of his own race.

Further delay on the manpower bill, decided by the GOP policy committee headed by Sen. Taft (R-Ohio), brought a hot protest from Chairman Gurney R-S.D.) of the Senate armed services committee.

Gurney said it was "too bad" that the Taft-led committee agreed to place both the civil functions flood control bill and displaced persons legislation ahead of the draft measure. He added that he was a "little incensed" over Taft's attitude.

The Senate bill would draft 18-year-olds for one year of training and make those 19 through 25 liable for two years of military service. It would permit the younger group to volunteer, however, thus making it unlikely that all of the 161,000 trainees needed would have to be drafted.

Police Capture Ohio Fugitive

WANAKAH, N. Y—(AP)—A 17-year-old Ohio fugitive was held today after what state police reported as a wild chase and an all-night search.

Sgt. M. L. Fort said the youth was William E. Guess of Lancaster, O. He said Guess admitted in a statement that he had escaped from the Lancaster Boys' Industrial school, stolen a 1947 automobile from Roy Moore of St. Louis, and participated in an attempted gas station theft at Wesleyville, Pa.

'Keep-In-Contact' Tour Set

McGregor to Visit Voters In District

Rep. J. Harry McGregor announced today the schedule of his annual "keep-in-contact-with-the-voters" tour of the 17th district.

He said he would be at the Richland county courthouse Aug. 11 and 12 from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m. to interview constituents who wish to discuss national issues with him. He also will make two-day visits to each of the five other counties in the district.

"It has always been my policy to keep in constant contact with the people of the seventeenth Ohio district," he said. "I am anxious to learn what the folks back home are thinking about.

"In order to follow this policy, I have attempted to make myself available to my constituents so they might discuss with me their views relative to national issues and also to give me the opportunity to be of service to them as their congressman."

In addition to his annual tour of the 17th district, McGregor regularly makes it a point to send to a cross section of the electorate a questionnaire on various issues before the congress.

Dates for his visits to various counties follow:

Monday and Tuesday, Aug. 9 and 10, Ashland, Ashland county.

Wednesday and Thursday, Aug. 11 and 12, Mansfield, Richland county.

Friday and Saturday, Aug. 13 and 14, Mt. Vernon, Knox county.

Monday and Tuesday, Aug. 16 and 17, Delaware, Delaware county.

Wednesday and Thursday, Aug. 18 and 19 Newark, Licking county.

Friday and Saturday, Aug. 20 and 21, Coshocton, Coshocton county.

Heart Attack Fatal to Father Flanagan

Boys Town Founder Dies In Germany

BERLIN—(AP) Msgr. Edward J. Flanagan, known throughout the world as the father of Boys Town, died at an army hospital today after a heart attack. He had been inspecting facilities in Germany for the youths he loved so well—regardless of nationality.

The 61-year-old Nebraska priest—famed for his credo "There is no such thing as a bad boy"—was stricken last night at Harnack house, an American military government residence for visiting officials.

Rushed to the 279th station military hospital, he failed to respond to oxygen and special heart injections, physicians said. He died at 2:05 a. m. (7:05 p. m. EST., Friday).

Catholic Army Chaplain Emmett I. Walsh administered last sacraments at the famed priest's bedside when death came. Father Walsh said he "died peacefully and in prayer."

Father Flanagan, who has championed the cause of underprivileged boys for more than three decades, went to Vienna last March to study Austrian youth conditions. During his tour he was received in Rome by Pope Pius XII.

Later he came to Germany at the invitation of the U. S. Army. In 1917 he made a similar mission to Japan.

The Nebraska priest founded his world renowned home for needy boys in 1917 on the outskirts of Omaha. Originally it was a little house which he rented by borrowing $90 in the Christmas season.

Boys Town has since grown into a busy community. Incorporated in 1936, it is now listed in the U.S. postal guide.

Father Flanagan gave sanctuary to boys accused of crimes ranging from petty thievery to murder. He pleaded in many courts for custody of the youths contending that proper environment was the most effective antidote for curbing juvenile delinquency.

Stocks Continue To Zoom

Buying Fastest In 15 Years

NEW YORK—Stocks today boomed in the most active session in 15 years.

Tickers fell behind as much as 13 minutes, another record that dates back to 1933. Prices hit new highs since Aug. 26, 1946, and at the highs were fractions to more than a point above yesterday's closings.

Toward closing time the tape gradually caught up as moderate profit-taking developed. This selling was easily absorbed, however, and prices were not seriously affected.

It was estimated that the short session's gain added about $750,000,000 to the value of listed securities, bringing the rise for two sessions to more than $2,000,000,000.

BULL MARKET ON

Wall Street chart readers said yesterday's rise through the 1947 highs in the industrial average confirmed a bull market and they immediately placed large buying orders.

The gains in the previous session ranged to 7 points. This boom brought in heavy buy orders from all parts of the nation and they were executed at today's opening on blocks of 1,000 to 21,000 shares.

Chrysler was up more than a point despite its strike. Steels also were up fractions to a point. Rails continued to meet demand and the utilities firmed.

ALL SECTIONS UP

Buying spread to all sections of the list. Gains of a point or more were made by such issues as International Harvester, International Paper, Johns-Manville, Reynolds Tobacco B, Southern Pacific, Union Carbide, Woolworth, and Youngstown Sheet & Tube.

Other share markets followed stocks higher. Curb issues were heavy and at one time the curb tape was seven minutes behind. It caught up by the end of the first hour.

Bonds advanced on active turnover. Cotton rose more than $1 a bale. Grains were irregular.

Showers Back Again

The weatherman today retracted his forecast of a warm and sunny week end.

Instead, he said there would be showers this afternoon, tonight and Sunday morning.

The rain area "sneaked up" on forecasters who had predicted an end to the showery period last night. Skies were almost clear for a time this morning, but clouds soon covered the sun again.

It will be cloudy most of Sunday, but the skies may clear by afternoon, the forecast said. The temperatures in Mansfield dropped to 45 this morning from a high of 60 yesterday.

Wavers On Arms Embargo

WASHINGTON — (INS)— The White House announced today that President Truman is considering lifting the embargo on the shipment of arms to the Middle East including the newly-recognized state of Israel.

The same announcement also said that Mr. Truman and his top advisers are studying the exchange of diplomatic representatives with Israel.

The United States embargo on the shipment of arms to the entire Middle East has been in effect since last September.

Consideration of arms shipments to the Holy Land and of sending an envoy to Israel came quickly on the heels of the White House announcement last night that the United States formally recognizes the new Jewish state.

President Truman announced the recognition a few minutes after a formal request for this action reached the White House. Mr. Truman's action received bi-partisan support in Washington.

White House Secretary Charles G. Ross made the announcement on today's developments. He emphasized that Mr. Truman's announcement of Israel recognition was not a matter of "snap judgment."

PROBLEM STUDIED

Ross said that the President had the recognition possibility under study "for some time." The secretary said Mr. Truman discussed it with Secretary of State Marshall, Undersecretary Lovett and Sen. Vandenberg (R-Mich.) chairman of the foreign relations committee and had their full concurrence and approval.

Ross also told reporters that the British government was informed in advance of the President's action that the United States had the matter of recognition under consideration and was contemplating taking that step.

Ross was told of reports from United Nations headquarters in New York that U. N. Delegate Warren R. Austin might resign because he did not know of the President's recognition action in advance. He replied.

"I have no information to that effect."

Transfer Approved

School Board OKs Mergers of Schools

The Richland county board of education last night by resolution authorized transfer of the Sharon township school district to the Shelby city school district.

The board acted on request of the Sharon district school board. The Shelby city school district board still must pass on the resolution.

Boyd Robinson, county superintendent, said the resolution must be advertised for two weeks. If no petition of objection is filed by legal voters the transfer would be made 30 days later, subject to approval by the state department of education. It would be effective with the fall term.

The Sharon school board, in its resolution, pointed out that it sought better facilities for pupils. It added that it owed approximately $6,900 to the Shelby city school district, which recently ordered Sharon to pay the amount or discontinue sending pupils to Shelby.

At present, the Sharon district has two one-room schools, the Gamble and Morton schools, for pupils from the first to the sixth grades. Older pupils attend Shelby schools.

Transfer of the school district would reduce the number of school district to nine in the county. Abandonment of the two one-room schools would reduce one-room schools in the county system to 15. Robinson said that 14 years ago the county had 78 one-room schools.

Gems Stolen By Trickery

CLEVELAND — (AP) — A trick cost Henry Blank, wholesale diamond dealer of Newark, N. J., "at least $75,000" worth of gems, police were told yesterday.

Blank left his topcoat and a brief case containing gems at a Cleveland office while he went to lunch with a partner yesterday.

Someone telephoned, imitated Blank's voice and authorized the other partner to give the case to a man represented as a hotel porter, the police report added.

Tel Aviv Airport Bombed

Egypt Issues War Report

CAIRO — (INS) — Egypt and other Arab states opened a "holy war" against the new state of Israel today and claimed immediate successes including a bomb attack on the Jewish Tel Aviv airport.

The Egyptian high command, in its first war communique, announced swift advances on a 50-mile front across the Palestine border.

(The London Evening Standard reported from Beirut, Lebanon, that King Abdullah of Trans-Jordan personally led his troops across the Allenby bridge which spans the Jordan river, the frontier between Palestine and Trans-Jordan.

With Arab forces reported on the move across the Holy Land's northern frontiers, the Egyptian high command issued a war communique.

It told of unresisted Egyptian advances in one area and heavy fighting against the Jews in another.

The communique, first to be issued by the Egyptian high command since formal opening of hostilities, said:

"Two detachments of Egyptian infantry and artillery crossed the border this morning.

REPORTS ON PROGRESS

"One engaged the powerfully fortified settlement of El Dangoor. Our artillery is hammering it and fighting is in progress.

"The other detachment went beyond Khanyounes and is advancing toward Gaza, meeting no resistance."

Gaza, an ancient Biblical city, lies on the Hephela coastal plain of Southern Palestine a few miles inland from the Mediterranean. The settlements mentioned in the communique are in the general area of Rafah which is just across the Egyptian border.)

(In Tel Aviv, temporary capital of the newly-proclaimed state of Israel, Haganah confirmed officially that Arab "invaders" had crossed into Palestine during the night.

(An announcement said that a settlement in Negev—the area of southeastern Palestine below the Dead Sea—had been attacked from the air.)

"Our planes dropped pamphlets asking Zionists to surrender within a certain time.

"When this period expired our planes bombed the settlements of Beit Hanoon and Biron Ishak north and northeast of Gaza.

Two Miners Out of Trap

SHAMOKIN, Pa.—(INS)—Two of three miners entombed in a flooded anthracite shaft near Shamokin were brought to the surface alive today after two and a half days of dramatic rescue efforts.

The survivors — Edward Heck, 41, and Arthur Gordon, 32—were rushed by ambulance to Shamokin State hospital.

Dr. Hugh Ward of the hospital staff announced later that the men were uninjured but suffered "exposure, fatigue and mild shock."

Dr. Ward said the men told him that the third miner, Charles Bashore, 36, was caught by the rush of water which flooded the mine Wednesday evening and "didn't have a chance."

Dozens of volunteers had been working in shifts to reach the men who were trapped when their drills struck a flooded working next to their own.

Emergency squads had to drain the sloping mine of an estimated 75 feet of water. Diggers meanwhile tunneled to the trapped men from another mine.

U. N. Will Open Inquiry

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y.—(INS)—The United Nations Security council was summoned into emergency session today to cope with the Arab invasion of Palestine

The 11-nation body is meeting at Lake Success at 2 p. m. (EST) and will hear protests of the Jewish agency charging Arab states with aggression.

A report of the invasion and truce situation from the consular body also will be considered. Alexander Parodi of France, chairman of the security council, convoked the 2 p. m. meeting on his own initiative and on the basis of reports reaching him concerning the Holy Land.

Church Groups Hear Truman Peace Plan

WASHINGTON — (UP) — Members of three church groups called on President Truman at the White House this week and to each he told of his efforts in behalf of world peace. Those who called on Mr. Truman were a group of Presbyterian ministers; representatives of the American Council of Christian churches which embraces a number of sects, and 400 Catholic priests.

The delegation representing the American Council of Christian Churches presented to Mr. Truman its own program for peace. The program was opposed to that of the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, one of the nation's major Protestant organizations.

The Rev. W. O. H. Garman, pastor of the Callender Memorial church at Wilkinsburg, Pa., and president of the council, said the Federal Council's program played into "Russia's hands" and stimulated "appeasement."

The core of their program was opposition to communism. It criticized the "hysteria" of the larger Federal Council organization.

The 400 priests who called were alumni of the Catholic North American college at Rome. They assembled in the Rose Garden outside Mr. Truman's office.

TELLS OF ENDEAVORS

He told them of his endeavors over the past three years "to organize the moral forces of the world." He said he was working "for the moral uplift of humanity in general and the United States in particular."

To the Presbyterian preachers, Mr. Truman said discussions with Russia are possible through the United Nations, but not on a country-to-country basis.

Three preachers representing the department of social education and action of the Presbyterian church of the United States said they asked Mr. Truman to "keep alive the ray of hope" which they found in the recent exchange between U. S. Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith and the Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov.

The clergymen were the Rev. Phillips Packer Elliott of the First Presbyterian church of Brooklyn, N. Y.; the Rev. Edwin O. Kennedy of the First Presbyterian church of Englewood, N. J., and the Rev. Edward W. Stimson of the Knox Presbyterian church of Cincinnati.

Bromfield's Latest Book At Library

'Goebbel's Diaries' Also Available

Leading this week's list of new non-fiction at the Mansfield Public library is MALABAR FARM, newest book by Richland county author, Louis Bromfield.

A continuation of the story of Malabar, begun in PLEASANT VALLEY, this book is a combination of a daily journal describing life on the farm and chapters describing methods of farming and soil conservation. Many Mansfielders are mentioned in the book to add to the local interest.

RUSSIAN JOURNAL, by John Steinbeck, is illustrated with photographs by Robert Capa. It is a very reasonable account of a trip these two men took into the Soviet Union during 1947. It deals particularly with the daily life of the people, and avoids as far as possible any political implications.

THE GOEBBEL'S DIARIES is just a fragment of the famous Nazi propagandist's diary found after his suicide. It has been translated and edited by Louis Lochner, well-known journalist. It tells in another part of the canvass of conditions in Germany during the war.

Norman Angell's STEEPER PLACES is a thought-provoking discussion of the world situation, especially as it relates to war and peace. It is one man's effort to give an answer to the atomic age, written from the English point of view.

Other non-fiction titles: PLASTIC CRAFT, by Delbick & Cooper; LOG CABINS, by Swanson; ELEMENTARY STATISTICAL METHODS, by Walker; PEACE OR ANARCHY, by Meyer; AMERICAN COMMUNISM by O'neal & Werner; PRACTICAL PARLIAMENTARY PROCEDURE, by Cruzan.

TAMMY OUT OF TIME, by Cid Ricketts Sumner, is light fiction on the old theme of a poor, uneducated girl who meets and marries the college son of a snobbish family. The conversation is original and Tammy's speech is quaint and amusing.

RELUCTANT REBEL, by Frederick Vandewater, is a novel dealing with the struggle of Ethan Allen's Green Mountain boys and the royal governor of New York over the territory called "The Grants." The main characters represent varying shades of loyalty that festered among the Colonists just before the Revolution. The usual romance is threaded through the tale.

KING'S MAN, by C. M. Edmondstone and M. L. F. Hyde, is the story of William Marshal in the reign of Henry I, first of the Plantagenet line of kings. Pledged by the king to protect the charming and mercurial Henry II, he never wavered in his loyalty to both. Penniless, except for what he could get by his skill in tournaments, he followed the young prince through all his mad adventures to his tragic death.

Other fiction titles: THAT WHICH IS CROOKED, by Disney; HANGING JUDGE, by Hamilton.

Mansfield Firm Wins First Award

First place award for farm paper campaigns was made today to Martin Steel Products corporation, Mansfield, in the Creative Competition of the National Advertising Agency network during the annual conference of the network at the Fairmont Hotel, San Francisco.

Presentation of the award certificate will be made to J. R. Mayner, vice-president in charge of sales for Martin Steel. Advertisements featured Martin all-metal buildings exclusively for the farm, including haymakers, cribs, bins, silos and dairy barns.

Shelby Church Budget Hiked

SHELBY—The annual visitation campaign to raise a budget of $16,590 for the operation and benevolences for the First Methodist church for the fiscal year of 1948-49 will be held Sunday afternoon, May 23.

To raise the budget, church officials said, members must increase their average pledge approximately 19 per cent.

The budget includes $6,500 for operating expenses, $6,590 for administration, $3,500 for benevolences, $4,000 for pastoral work.

The financial committee includes Arthur McGaw, chairman; Gerald Dennis, H. Clayton Mayer, O. H. Pfahler, Wilber Workman, John Huston, Thurman Black, Ralph Carroll and L. D. Malone.

Background's Big Factor

CLEVELAND —(AP)— The war brides with happy family backgrounds have made the best adjustments to their new lives here, A Western Reserve university study indicates.

The survey by the university's social work school was made of 120 of an estimated 500 to 600 war brides in Cleveland.

A good early home atmosphere, the researchers found, is the big difference between those who glide through minor problems and those whose marriages end in failure.

The Simpson Student Service will hold its picnic May 24. Officers for next year will be announced by Miss Hester Robinson, adviser.

★

The seventh, eighth and ninth grade boys and girls glee club under the direction of Miss Fannie Lou Eiler, Mrs. Virginia Allen, and A. L. Derr will present their annual spring concert, May 26, in student assembly. There will be no public performance.

★

The Simpson patrol will attend a picnic given for the Junior Safety Patrol of Mansfield by the police department Tuesday at North Lake park. Hot dogs, milk and potato chips will be served.

★

The Daughters of the American Revolution and Sons of the American Revolution will present citizenship medals to an eighth grade boy and girl at the school's awards assembly. These students are to be chosen by a faculty vote.

The Simpson track team has won four straight meets, including the tri-meet against Galion and Appleseed.

YOUNG CONFIRMANDS—Thirteen young people will be confirmed Sunday morning at services at St. Mark's and St. Paul's Lutheran churches. Four of the five who will be confirmed at the St. Mark's church are shown in the top photo. They are Peggy Jane Snyder, Harlan Burns, David Craig and Billy Kozma. Sherry Fike was absent when the picture was made. Below are six of the eight members of the class at St. Paul's church. Shown are William Spellman, Frank Schulz, Joann Landis, Joann Hoff, Lena Rose Holzworth and Beverly McKeehen. Donald Geib and Diane Hayward are not in the picture.

Lake Tanker Crews Strike

CLEVELAND—(AP)—The crews of six Great Lakes oil tankers have gone on strike and those of nine others plan to walk out when they reach port, the manager of the Cleveland Tankers, Inc., reported today.

The strikers, members of the CIO-National Maritime union, walked off the Comet Thursday at East Chicago, Ill., he declared.

The union is demanding new contracts retain a clause requiring the operators to obtain new employes through a union hiring hall, said Jonassen. Vessel owners contend the provision would violate the Taft-Hartley act.

BISHOP GETS CAR

YOUNGSTOWN —(AP)— A new automobile has been given Bishop James A. McFadden of the Youngstown Catholic diocese by 17 priests recently elevated to the Monsignori.

Work among Zulu tribes is strictly divided between men and women. The men cut and set the poles for houses but women weave the mat coverings; the men carve utensils from wood but women make clay pots.

Asks Release From Duties

Wilberforce Board Head to Leave Post

XENIA—(AP)—Bishop Reverdy Cassius Ransom has decided to step down as chairman of the Wilberforce university board of trustees and bishop of the Third Episcopal district of the African Methodist Episcopal church.

The 87-year-old churchman asked to be relieved of these duties yesterday at the 33rd quadrennial session of the AME church in Kansas City, Kas.

Delegates unanimously approved his request to continue as bishop under special assignment as head of a department of church history and research at Wilberforce.

Around Wilberforce university today, where church and state schools exist in uneasy truce, the big question was:

"Will this heal the rupture that has torn Wilberforce in two?"

Bishop Ransom, who has served his church for 62 years but who packs the stamina of a younger man, was a principal in the battle of personalities that preceded the school division. Avowedly, the bishop bore no love for Dr. Charles H. Wesley, president of the state school.

More than a year ago, he called on Dr. Wesley to resign as president of the combined school. Dr. Wesley countered with the acid suggestion the bishop resign his post. The board of trustees later fired Dr. Wesley as head of the church school. That cleaved one campus into two schools.

Girls Win Top Jobs On Appleseed Press

By MARY KINSEY AND NANCY CRALL

Girls will head the staff of the Appleseed Press next year. JoAnna Brunn was announced as the editor-in-chief and Cynthia Ackerman as the business manager at the editorial and business staff banquet last night.

Janet Neal will be assistant editor and Rheta Ballantine assistant business manager. Elections were held Tuesday morning at the editorial and business staff meetings.

Mary Bogner was editor this year and Jack Peirce was the business manager. Bernice Henry and J. J. Thomas are the advisers.

The banquet was held in the Johnny Appleseed Junior high cafeteria with approximately 85 persons present.

Teachers present were Bernice Henry, Alice Kirkwood, J. J. Thoms, Lenora Fehr, R. Y. Davis and Elaine McClellan.

★

Tom Goodhart was chosen captain of the band for next year. Nelaura Orr was chosen lieutenant. Sergeants will be Herb Kronenfield, Roger Fenneman, Tommy Garn, and Genevieve Hartig. Top sergeant will be Russell Keck.

★

Music groups of Appleseed are practicing for their annual vocal musical festival to be held May 21.

★

Scholarship tests are being given selected students of the ninth grade Tests are being given in English, math, spelling, language, general science, social science, home economics, physical education and mechanical drawing. A few pupils from each class are chosen to compete for the awards. These tests are being given by the Parent-Teachers association. An English test was given this past week.

★

Jeanne Worley's dramatics class presented a play, "Junior's Moustache," to the ninth graders during third period Thursday. The play is a comedy in one act about a 'teen-age boy and his family and friends. The part of "Junior" in Cast A was played by Fred Stahlheber; sister Ann, Pat Mosberg; mother, Jean Inscore; father, Jack Welsh; Tookie, Lois Reichert; school teacher, Robert Jisa; and Mr. Truax, Millard Pryor.

★

Cast B will present the play for the seventh and eighth graders next week.

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

PAGE FOUR — MANSFIELD, OHIO, SATURDAY, MAY 15, 1948

Mothers who cook elegant meals for daughter's boy friend are just making it tough for both the kids after the wedding.

If the southern revolt against Truman continues, the Democratic convention at Philadelphia may turn out to be a news event, after all.

Anywhere In the U. S. In a Day

TODAY Mansfield joins the nation in marking an achievement that tells perhaps as much as any other one thing the secret of the progress of this nation over the last two centuries. The achievement, reduced to its simplest terms, is that you can drop an air mail letter into the slot at the post office and the letter can reach any destination in the U. S. within one day.

Actually we call this the 30th anniversary of air mail service in the United States but it goes back much more than three decades. To get its true significance, it is necessary to recall that in the days of the drafting and signing of the U. S. Constitution weeks and even months were required to deliver a letter less than 1,000 miles.

Now the average air mail letter travels 1,402 miles in one day. Air mail routes cover 125,000 miles as compared with 218 miles when the service was inaugurated in 1918. Nearly 800 planes do the job now, where eight planes did it 30 years ago.

The great growth of air mail is attributable to the average American's native lust for speed. When he wants something done he wants it done right away. If something is to be said, he wants it said right now. This has been a psychological keynote in the growth of the railroads, the automobile, and plane travel as well as air mail itself.

And so long as Americans hanker to get things done quickly, it is pretty certain progress will continue. We may not always be right—but we'll be rapid. And we'll get there somehow.

Double Standard In Panama

HAROLD L. ICKES, former secretary of the interior, is doing the people of this country a valuable service in calling to their attention the kind of racial discrimination officially fostered by the government in the Panama Canal Zone. The matter is based on the fact that government employes who are citizens of the United States are paid in a different currency from that used to pay native workers. Upon this currency difference, known in Panama as "Gold" and "Silver," an involved system of wage and social discrimination has been built up.

This sort of discrimination, placing the United States citizen automatically on a higher plane of life than the native resident of the area, is what earned the so-called imperialist nations the hatred of natives in the Far East.

There often are cogent reasons for using a two-currency system where the government operates in foreign countries. In China during the war it was forced on us when the Chinese currency broke down. But there the end result has been the same, emphasis upon discrimination between American citizens and others, not in privileges properly appertaining to citizenship but economically and socially.

The United States today is competing for the confidence and respect of other peoples of the world. It cannot afford to indulge in discrimination of the nauseating "super-race" variety.

Plea For More Than Material Aid

IN A LETTER to the New York Times the editor of Rendez-vous, a Swiss periodical, describes the state of mind of many of Europe's fear-ridden people.

He reminds his readers of the changes of opinion in Europe since the Soviet attack on Finland in 1940. He says that after a seven-year struggle for liberty, Europe is enslaved. Three quarters of the population are the victims of the most iniquitous system of slavery ever recorded. Fear, he says, is the motivating power for most actions in France, Italy and Switzerland. Europe's heritage of freedom is being destroyed, and no one has the necessary courage to stop the process.

"Can America help us?" asks this writer. "Not by money, however generously given, but by freeing our hearts, our tongues, our minds? By raising Truth from the bottom of her well?" He names the young intellectuals as the one class able to lead Europe to freedom.

This writer's thinking in regard to our help does not go far enough. The help we are sending Europe should not be considered on a material basis alone. It could not be given if we did not feel a deep obligation to preserve the freedom of Europe. Americans are willing to make material sacrifices to that end, but the actual leadership for France, Italy or Switzerland must come from their own ranks.

Meet the New President of Italy

THE FIRST PRESIDENT of the Republic of Italy, Luigi Einaudi, is a man whose political history shows that he was on the side of democracy over a period when it was personally dangerous to have such beliefs.

In pre-war Italy he was a member of the Liberal party, which opposed the Fascist regime of Mussolini, and from 1919 served that party as a senator. After Italy entered the war Einaudi found his opposition to Mussolini becoming too dangerous, and finally he fled the country in 1942. After the surrender of Italy and the death of Mussolini, Einaudi returned and became governor of the Bank of Italy. He became director of the budget and then vice-premier under De Gasperi.

His Liberal party label is from the days when liberalism was something opposed to Fascism. By profession he is a banker and economically he is conservative. He is credited with helping to stabilize the Italian currency after the war, by resisting the trend toward heavy government spending and liberal credit.

His name should lend confidence and prestige to a middle-of-the-road government in Italy.

California To Hold Out For Warren

LOS ANGELES—An easterner asked a Californian here the other day whether he thought the Republican presidential lightning might strike Governor Warren. The answer was that California is putting up so many lightning rods that the state looks like a prickly pear.

Warren himself, his supporters and most of the people you meet in the staet are in dead earnest this time. They want the nomination for Warren, the state and the west. From now on, there will be a great deal of activity. It has been reported that no organization and no money will be raised to promote Warren's candidacy. This is not true. There will be plenty of drive and plenty of what is essential to drive.

There is not the ruthless practicality among California Republicans that characterizes those of some other states. But what the Warren promoters at the Philadelphia convention will lack in Machiavellian skill will be made up in enthusiasm.

Warren's reluctance to seek the nomination has seriously handicapped his supporters until now. He has steadfastly refused to enter the primaries or actively to solicit delegates in other states. For two years his supporters have tried to induce him to make more speeches and public appearances in the east and the midwest. They have wanted to put on a national publicity campaign. And they have attempted to have him consent to a solid western bloc of delegates from the 11 neighboring states. All this he has vetoed until now.

Warren has let it be known that he would welcome the nomination and that his candidacy in California is no mere gesture. The delegation is a thoroughly Warren group. Every name passed his approval.

Contrary to rumors circulating in the East, there is no suggestion of a deal of any sort for the second-choice votes of the California delegation. In the Philadelphia convention the California delegation intends to vote for Warren for many ballots, because its candidate is a long shot, and the time for long shots is after several other possibilities have been eliminated.

* * *

Cool to Stassen.

Warren people are not talking about second choices. But it is a fact that there is less disposition to lean toward Stassen than to any of the other well-known candidates. Californians are very touchy about outside candidates even hinting that they may enter the California primary. Such a hint was made in behalf of Stassen, and it was bitterly resented. It has definitely injured the Minnesota man's chance of California support in the later stages of the national convention. Taft, Dewey or even Vandenberg would be more favorably considered.

As usual, Democratic affairs in California are in a deplorable state. James Roosevelt, state chairman, in an important speech recently omitted the President's name—a momentous error in the political book of rules. Inadvertently, perhaps, he mentioned Eisenhower, which evoked an ovation.

However, Truman plans to come out here in June to speak at a press association meeting in Los Angeles and at the University of California in Berkeley. His journey will follow a perilous path of possible political pitfalls. He will have to meet the right kind of Democrats and avoid the wrong kind of Democrats. In California, the two are scarcely distinguishable. From day to day the authenticity of members of the party changes. And the Wallace people will omit no effort to embarrass the President.

The Wallace people, it should be added, are quarreling. Robert Kenny, the first plumed knight of the Wallace party, seems to have been unhorsed already. Nevertheless, Wallace will probably get 300,000 or 400,000 votes.

It promises to be a dismal and unprofitable visit for the President, but perhaps he will enjoy the climate.

Salute to Lauren Bacall

By ELSIE ROBINSON

I DO NOT know Mrs. Humphrey Bogart. We have no interests in common. Yet in the name of all decent American womanhood, I rise to salute her today. And ardently wish there were hundreds like her.

Mrs. Bogart and her studio have clashed over what may seem a very simple matter. She has refused to accept the leading role in a picture which would force her to wear a greatly abbreviated bathing suit. Some say that she has been suspended for this refusal; others report a heated quarrel. Whatever the conflict, I hope the little lady will rub their noses in it and kick them when they are down.

These are not ladylike words but they are a hundred times more ladylike than the typical vulgar output of many Hollywood studios with their appalling influence on the American public.

Fifty years ago no decent woman would have witnessed such a display as we now accept as a matter of course. The only institution which glorified nakedness was the saloon and even the wildest western dives did not welcome female sightseers. Today, under Hollywood's example, we aim to expose everything, including our gallstones if possible.

Now I'm not a prude. I think that many of our modern fashions are both healthy and attractive. They are infinitely more hygienic than the Gibson Girl fashions which are the current fad. A certain amount of undress is a splendid idea, especially for children with their sun suits, and leading doctors and clergymen endorse it.

But there's no excuse under heaven for our adult behemoths and actresses to strip to their undies and expose yards of abdominal epidermis and spare rib. I could find a better display at any meat market. It is not only revolting but it's mighty poor salesmanship when it raises Cain with every ideal of modesty. (In case you don't recognize the word, consult Webster.)

In refusing to expose herself Mrs. Bogart is not merely upholding the canons of decency . . . she is defending the modesty and refinement of all true womanhood.

Hollywood itself has proved that it is possiblee to make fine and attractive pictures with tremendous popular appeal without exposing shin bones and varicose veins. It can, when it will, make the human body an inspiration and a sacred symbol. But when it begins to put naked women on the block as if they were so much beef on the hoof, even friendly and easy going America will rebel. And Hollywood is in no position to face such rebellion today.

Summary of Week's Happenings

Mid-East Boils, Europe Seeks Unity

By Associated Press

WHILE the Middle East boiled, with the British pulling out of Palestine and the Arabs and Jews ready to slug it out for control of the ancient Holy Land, western Europe heard much talk of unification.

The time has come when European nations must transfer and merge some portion of their sovereign rights to permit formation of a European federation.

That was the declaration of some 600 thoughtful, worried men from 28 European nations this week at the Hague in the Netherlands. They met as individuals and not as representatives of any government. Their meeting was called the unofficial Congress of Europe.

The Congress leaders, like Winston Churchill, were for the most part former officials whose convictions for peace and how to maintain it were forged during two world wars. Some were in exile from homelands in the grip of a new aggressor.

* * *

Slow, Careful Moves.

The political committee of the Congress decided to move slowly and carefully in forming a European federation. They rejected a proposal by Paul Reynaud, former French premier, to call western European elections for a consultative continental assembly by the end of the year.

Such a federation would not conflict with the United Nations, Churchill said. It would become a subordinate part of the U.N. He envisioned three such "august but subordinate" regional federations: Europe and the British Empire, the Soviet Union, and the western hemisphere.

Delegates from all 16 European nations in the Marshall plan attended. Also western Germany, and exiled leaders from Spain, Finland, Latvia, Lithuania, Estonia, Poland, Hungary, Czechoslovakia, Romania, Yugoslavia and Bulgaria.

At Home

Railroads Seized.

The government took over the nation's railroads this week for the fourth time in 30 years. The other times were in 1918, in 1943, and in 1946. Seizure of the roads was not enough, however, to end the threat of a strike. The President kept trains running by obtaining a court order banning any walkout before May 19. Leaders of the three railway brotherhoods reluctantly bowed to that order.

The government went to Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough for the injunction. Union leaders knew him well as the judge who twice fined John L. Lewis and his United Mine Workers for disobeying court orders.

* * *

Army in Charge.

Secretary of the Army Kenneth C. Royall is in charge of the rail lines. He picked Maj. Gen. Edmond H. Leavey, an expert in transportation, to head the operation. Seven railroad presidents, each commissioned a colonel, will do most of the actual running of the railroads for the Army.

Government seizure in this case amounted to a technicality in which nothing much was due to change unless things got tough. Then Gen. Leavey, backed by troops, would have stepped in and taken over physical possession of the lines.

Railway unions, assailing the government as a "strike-breaking agency" will fight the injunction. Unless government attorneys can counter successfully the union arguments before Judge Goldsborough, the court order will expire at 7:45 p. m. May 19, leaving some 200,000 engineers, firemen and switchmen free to strike.

The President in his seizure order, said a rail strike would be a nationwide tragedy with worldwide repercussions. But he did not denounce by name this time, as he did two years ago, the union leaders who tied up the country in a two-day strike.

* * *

Dewey vs. Stassen.

Oregon's GOP presidential primary May 21 is the last popular primary election before the Republican national convention in Philadelphia exactly one month later. Developments this week made certain that the outcome would be dramatic and important, far beyond the 12 delegate votes that hinge on the balloting.

For on the Oregon outcome, Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and Harold E. Stassen have staked their political prestige and, perhaps, their presidential ambitions. They will meet face to face in an old-fashioned debate reminiscent of the Lincoln-Douglas political duels. This time it will be over a nationwide radio hookup.

The New York governor, barnstorming through Oregon, accepted the debate in a wire to Dr. Peter Odegard, president of Reed college, Portland, Ore., who proposed it. Twice before he had ignored Stassen challenges to debate.

This time Dewey set the issue—"Shall the Communist Party Be Outlawed." He also suggested a nationwide broadcast.

In his town-to-town campaigning, Dewey has hammered at Stassen's original proposal to outlaw Communism. He demanded, instead, that it be kept in the open, under control. The New Yorker declared that to outlaw the Communist party would be a violation of American principles and the Constitution.

* * *

Recuperating Redhead.

Walter P. Reuther, red-haired president of the CIO United Auto Workers, said this week that "somebody, somewhere, sometime" may talk, giving police a clue to his would-be assassin.

Meeting the press for the first time since his shooting April 20, Reuther said he was sure it was a "professional job." About the only chance of unraveling the mystery, he thinks, is that some underworld character eventually will talk out of turn.

Wan and still in pain, Reuther told of his thoughts after the blast of a shotgun through his kitchen window:

"My arm hung like a limp rag and I was sure it was gone. When I felt the slugs in my chest, I thought maybe I'd die. But I wasn't so afraid of these things.

"The thing that absolutely terrorized me was that my daughter might come downstairs and see me lying there. What an awful impact it would have been on her young mind."

The daughter, five-year-old Linda, was a fellow patient for a period in the hospital, one floor above her father. She had her tonsils out.

Reuther expects to leave the hospital in another week, but it will be three or four months before his arm can be removed from a cast. As part of his treatment, his wounded right arm is given hundreds of electric shocks daily in an effort to restore damaged nerves.

"I'm the luckiest guy in the world," Reuther says, "just to be alive."

In Short

In Columbia, S. C., prison officials received a letter from an escaped prisoner apologizing for his runaway and directing them to a letter hidden in his cell. The hidden letter explained that his 10-year sentence for book theft plus two years of a term still due in Mississippi was tantamount to a life sentence.

* * *

In Pittsburgh, trial of three men on charges of murder was postponed by the district attorney after a prison barber mistakenly gave them convict haircuts. The prosecutor said they will be tried as soon as their hair grows back in.

* * *

In Beverly Hills, Calif., Dr. Franz Polgar, psychologist, quickly earned his $500 fee for addressing a dinner. He agreed if he could not find the hidden check, the club could keep it. The doctor, who studied under Sigmund Freud, had the diners concentrate on its location. Then he "picked" their minds. Within three minutes, he walked over to a table lifted a plate of Parker House rolls, broke open the third from the left, took out his check.

New Drug Fights Goiter

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

OUR ability to control and cure toxic goiter has been vastly increased by the discovery of a new drug known as propylthiouracil. Its development illustrates how well modern science knows how to make use of a promising lead to give us ever better weapons in our fight against disease.

A few years ago a substance called thiouracil was found to have very beneficial effects when used in the treatment of toxic goiter. But useful as it was, this drug also caused certain bad and even dangerous reactions.

Once these had been thoroughly investigated, chemists went to work to modify thiouracil in such a way as to get rid of its bad qualities while keeping its helpful ones. The result is propylthiouracil, a drug with twice the potency and scarcely a tenth of the toxic effects of its forerunner.

In toxic goiter the thyroid gland produces such an excessive amount of its secretion that it acts as a poison to cause such symptoms as intense nervousness, rapid heart beat, irritability, and loss of weight.

Sometimes there is enlargement of the thyroid gland in the neck, and bulging of the eyeballs. There may also be high blood pressure and excessive perspiration of the hands.

Today, the use of propylthiouracil is regarded as being as safe as operation for the removal of the thyroid gland. If the drug can be administered regularly in the proper doses and the patient can be observed periodically, operation may, for the first time, be avoided in a great majority of cases. The drug is given each day.

Rapid improvement in the symptoms occurs with the use of propylthiouracil, but the drug must not be discontinued or the dosage reduced just because the patient feels better. If either of these things is done, the symtoms will promptly recur. On the other hand, apparently there are some patients who do not respond to this preparation and, in such instances, operation is necessary.

Unfortunately, certain reactions to the drug may occur, such as hives, pain in the joints, sickness at the stomach, and a sensation of numbness. However, such reactions develop in less than one out of every thirty cases.

* * *

Operation Necessary.

IF, after the use of propylthiouracil, it is found necessary to operate on the thyroid gland, the drug should be stopped for a short period prior to operation, and the patient given iodine. This will serve to decrease the tendency to bleed at the time of the operation.

Treatment with this drug does not require hospitalization nor is it necessary for the patient to discontinue his normal activities. Except in cases of unusual severity, the medical treatment of toxic goiter with propylthiouracil would appear advisable at first.

If satisfactory results are not obtained, operation may be performed at a later date.

Medical treatment with this preparation can be continued indefinitely if satisfactory results are obtained.

A new three-cent stamp, of special delivery size will be placed on sale in Washington, D. C. on May 28, honoring the four chaplains who sacrificed their lives when the troopship DORCHESTER sank in the North Atlantic, Feb. 3, 1943.

The four chaplains—a priest, two ministers and a rabbi—had given their lifebelts to soldiers aboard the torpedoed vessel and were last seen standing with locked arms, each uttering his own prayer.

Shown on the stamp are left to right: the Rev. George L. Fox of Cambridge, Vt., a Methodist pastor; the Rev. Clark V. Poling, of First Reformed church Schenectady, N. Y., the Rev. John P. Washington, formerly of St. Stephen's Catholic church, Arlington, New Jersey, and Rabbi Alexander Goode of Washington.

An original painting of the incident hangs in the New York offices of the National Conference of Christians and Jews, at 381 Fourth Avenue. The Conference which is dedicated to fostering understanding, amity, justice and cooperation among people of all faiths and nationalities, will sponsor a special cacheted cover for the Four Chaplains Stamp, at 25 cents apiece or five for a dollar. Address: Nat'l Conference of Christians and Jews, 381 Fourth Ave., New York 16, N. Y.

Industrial nursing is a field wide open to men, the American Nurses' Association reports. Industry in United States was employing 9354 registered nurses in 1947.

Many additional Negro graduate nurses are required to supplement the 9000 now serving in hospitals and public health agencies. While Negroes compose 10 per cent of the population, only 3 per cent of the graduate nurses in U. S. are Negro.

Nowadays two out of every three babies are born in hospitals. This additional load is placed on the shoulders of a numerically inadequate nursing supply, making a crisis in nursing service.

Walt Whitman, America's greatest poet, was a male nurse in the Civil War. More men could well take up nursing careers, not as aids to poetry, but in the interests of the country's sick.—American Nurses' Association.

Denies Guilt In Restaurant Holdup

Westbrook Pegler

Arizona Republicans Just Ignore Opportunity's Loud Knocking

THIS YEAR it is raining soup and the Republicans in the state of Arizona are out with a fork.

The Democratic party of Arizona could be the crookedest Democratic party of them all. The Democrats flaunt their depravity. People laugh about it. What are they going to do about it? Nothing, besause there is no Republican organization. Even with some enormous number, for Arizona, of new people on the lot, eligible to vote and thus far unregistered and uncommitted, nobody is showing any interest in them.

There isn't gumption or organization enough to plot the new settlements and trailer camps around Phoenix and Tucson and send out canvassers to do the customary political missionary work. Volunteers don't know where to go to volunteer.

John L. Sullivan, formerly attorney general, was regarded for years as a harmless rummy in a cheap political job. It is an elective job, which means that it is also political.

★

Thus, when a constitutional amendment was proposed on the ballot forbidding the closed shop in Arizona, Sullivan damned it in language right out of the union book. That meant that after it passed, the amendment would rely for its legal defense on state official with a political commitment to frustrate this foul revival of slavery.

However, providentially, it didn't come to that. Sullivan sent a collector out to pick up the graft, or lug, from a chain of desert clip joints strung along the big highways. They are mostly dreary little shacks, miles from nowhere. Gas. Oil. Soft drinks. Beer. Wine. Water.

Some of these plants had playrooms out back, offering roulette, craps, or poker, or an adaptation of the old boardwalk roll-the-ball-fake, which was known in Arizona as the ancient Indian ball-game.

They laid for toufists and vagrant trailer families. The grind was paltry by comparison with the business in any open town, but these were small-time clips.

★

Sullivan's collector, a fellow named H. S. Hendricks, had credentials as a "special agent" of the attorney general. He tried to bribe a highway patrolman to ignore these traps and Sullivan testified for him. He said he had sent Hendricks out to test the honesty of public officials. There was a flurry about jury-fixing, but Sullivan and Hendricks were convicted and sentenced to prison. They probably won't stay long. Not many do in Arizona.

'Friends of Land' Close Conference

Group Discusses Work In Schools

The first national meeting of corporations supporting the "Friends of the Land" closed today at Louis Bromfield's Malabar farm following a general discussion of the work of the group.

Among the topics discussed by the representatives and executives of various corporations were their work with schools, general educational forum meetings around the country, and the interest of corporations seeking the conservation of land and water.

Morris E. Fonda, assistant to the president of the Friends of the Land in Columbus, announced that the annual conference of all Friends of the Land members will be held in Oklahoma City in October.

"A Nutritional conference will be held at Ohio University June 26-27," Fonda said.

The meeting here yesterday and today was an experimental meeting to acquaint representatives of corporations contributing to the support of the organization with the work and activity of the group.

Yesterday's session of the conference included a tour of Louis Bromfield's Malabar farm and the surrounding area that included the Clear Fork reservoir.

Bromfield is a vice president of the Friends of the Land.

State Mobile X-Ray Unit Here Monday

The state's mobile tuberculosis X-ray unit will be in the Mansfield area from Monday to Friday of next week to examine county and city school children and the general public, Mrs. Margaret Adams, executive secretary of the Richland county TB association, announced today.

The unit provides rapid X-rays free of charge to all school children and at the nominal fee of 65 cents for the general public.

The unit, which will operate from 8:30 to 11:30 a. m. and 1 to 4:30 p. m. Monday through Friday will be at the following locations:

Monday—Madison high school, for all junior and senior high school students in the county.

Tuesday—Senior high school, for junior and Senior high school students in the city.

Wednesday—Shelby high school, for junior and senior high and grade school students.

Thursday—Shelby Seamless Tube, for workers at the plant.

Friday—116 Park avenue west, for the general public.

Only three persons of 58 checked in the regular May chest clinic in the county showed positive tests, Mrs. Adams said today. The positive cases were reported in Shelby.

One positive case was found in Mansfield among the 21 persons re-checked.

2 Questioned By Police

Police arrested two 18-year-old youths early this morning in Loudonville and booked the pair here on a charge of investigation.

They were apprehended first by Loudonville police and held by authorities there for the Mansfield police.

Although detectives refused to discuss the case, it was learned that the youths are being questioned in connection with a holdup.

The most recent holdup in Mansfield occurred Monday night when two youths robbed the Wellborn grocery on Hedges street and took $70 at the point of the gun. Mrs. L. L. Welborn described the pair as being about 20 years old.

Albert Tillman Rites Arranged

Funeral services for Albert Tillman, 50-year-old Mansfield resident who died Wednesday night, will be held Monday at 2 p. m. at the Geiger funeral home.

Rev. R. R. Robinson, pastor of the AME church, will officiate and burial will be in Mansfield cemetery.

Mr. Tillman resided at 266 North Diamond street. Friends may call at the funeral home.

Ship Makes Call for Aid

SAN FRANCISCO —(U.P.)— An unknown ship reported in a garbled distress message today that she had struck a floating mine and was "sinking fast."

A coast guard flying boat and three cutters were dispatched to the position given by the ship in her hasty SOS. The plane was nearing the position and was expected to reach there about dawn.

In its message the ship used the call letters "KHIC" assigned to the freighter William E. Channing. However, Capt. E. Thorne, port captain at Astoria, Ore., notified authorities that the Channing had been laid up at Cathlamet Bay, Ore., since last Tuesday.

"The vessel is being investigated and there is a possibility another vessel may have sent the call," Thorne reported.

The first message was picked up by navy, coast guard and federal communications monitors at 12:45 a. m (PST). A second call on the general distress channel was heard by the coast guard cutter Klamath as it raced to the rescue at 2:30 a. m.

Steel Strike Predicted

BOSTON —(AP)— CIO President Philip Murray said today more than 50,000 steelworkers may be on strike before the end of the year.

Murray told a convention of the CIO United Steelworkers that between now and December contracts covering 107,000 steelworkers will expire with steel fabricating plants, and added:

"It is reasonable to assume that 50 per cent of them will be fighting with their backs to the wall to preserve their union."

Murray said such workers might be faced with idleness because of "the strikes they might be forced into in the coming year."

The CIO president, who is head of the steelworkers, made this statement in appealing to the delegates to raise the union's monthly dues from $1.50 to $2 to prepare for "these crucial days."

Cleveland Man In Court

4 Others Enter Guilty Pleas

Donald DeVere Bowman, 29, of Cleveland, pleaded innocent yesterday afternoon to an armed robbery indictment, through his attorney, William H. Calhoun.

He is accused in the $248 robbery of the Wade and Roberts restaurant at Orchard Park April 5.

Bowman was one of 10 arraigned in common pleas court on indictments returned by the grand jury Tuesday.

A second man, also indicted for the same robbery, Wallace R. Black, 24, of Columbus, was granted permission to enter his plea Monday at 11 a. m. when his attorney, James V. Will, returns from a trip out of town.

Four of the 10 persons arraigned yesterday pleaded guilty, and one of them, James R. Hartshorne, 21, Orrville, was placed on probation for four years by Common Pleas Judge G. E. Kalbfleisch.

The indictment charged Hartshorne with theft of $114 from the home of John Wilson Fry of near Shelby. Hartshorne was represented by Attorney Myron T. Brenneman, of Orrville. Fry went to the home as an agent of a firm which buys dead animals.

HAD GOOD RECORD

Testimony showed that restitution had been made; that Hartshorne did not have a previous record, and that he had a creditable record in the Army, receiving an honorable discharge in July, 1946. The probation will be transferred to Wayne county officials.

Judge Kalbfleisch instructed Probation Officer Ralph Hughes to report on the backgrounds of three others who pleaded guilty.

They will appear in court Monday at 10:30 a. m. for sentencing. They are:

Lawrence Sherman Corwin of Bucyrus, indicted on charges of forging a $32.50 check, and on a second count, for uttering the check.

William (Willie) E. Robinson, 32, of 228 North Franklin avenue, indicted on charges of pocket-picking of $4 April 19.

Jack Swartz, 26, of 116 Sherman avenue, indicted on charges of forging a $19.50 check and on a second count of uttering the check.

ENTER PLEAS MONDAY

Robert C. Mason, 35, and Edithgene Church, 22, and Mason's wife, Hazel, 41, will enter pleas Monday at 11 a. m.

The court appointed Attorney R. W. Lett to represent Mrs. Church and Attorney C. F. Creedman to represent the Masons.

Mason and Mrs. Church were indicted on charges of making and printing obscene pictures and on a second count of selling the pictures.

Mrs. Mason was indicted on a charge of making and printing obscene pictures.

Albert Elliot, 18, of 335 Newman street, indicted on a charge of statutory rape, involving a 15-year-old girl, entered a plea of innocent through his attorney, H. Eugene Ryan.

Park Group to Form Kittenball Team

Youths from 12 to 18 in the Sixth ward who are interested in playing kittenball this summer were urged today to attend a meeting at 7:30 p. m. Monday at John Todd park pavilion.

Three hundred and sixty-five children were examined in the recently completed examinations of county children who will enter school for the first time this fall, the board of health revealed today. A total of 292 defects were found.

The examinations were designed to discover physical defects and to recommend treatment.

A breakdown of the results follows, indicating type of defect, number of children found with the defect, and the number of children found with the defect corrected:

Teeth, 83 with defects, 15 corrected.

Vision and eyes, 28 with defects, one corrected.

Tonsils, 119 with defects, 22 corrected.

Skin, three with defects.

Speech, one with defect.

Heart, six with defects.

Nutrition, 28 with defects.

Ears, 18 with defects.

Glands, six with defects.

Of the total of 365 children examined, 259 had previously been vaccinated against small pox and 139 against diphtheria.

Gromyko Recall to Cost U. N. Its Top Attraction

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK - (AP) - The United Nations is losing its biggest drawing card this summer with the departure of Andrei Andreyevich Gromyko, the "oldest young man in the world."

Lake Success won't be quite the same without the black-browed Russian delegate, a boy wonder of the diplomatic world. Perhaps no man his age in history ever said "No" on more major issues in so short a time.

ANDREI GROMYKO

He put his "Noes" into the record so often that even the news chroniclers are mixed up in the box score. One morning newspaper here put the total at 23. Another credited him with 22 putouts and an assist from Andrei A. Vishinsky, who set the Soviet pattern with the first veto, delivered in London.

Gromyko — whose nickname "Grom" means "Thunder" in his own language — merely announced he was going home to Moscow for his first vacation in three years. Other diplomats here believe, however, his departure may signal his elevation to an even higher policy-making status in the Soviet structure.

At 38 Gromyko already has behind him a brilliant career in world diplomacy, most of it spent in the United States. He came here first in 1939 as counsellor to the Russian embassy in Washington. In 1943 he became ambassador himself, perhaps the youngest man — only 34 — ever to represent a major power here.

He replaced the veteran and friendly Maxim Litvinoff, and some observers at the time saw in his appointment a cooling off of the Soviet Union's relations toward the western powers. Little has happened since to dispel that belief.

Diligent and aloof, "The Grom" became a standout attraction of the United Nations sessions after he took his famous walk during the security council's deliberation of the Iranian problem.

The first question nine out of ten visitors to Lake Success asked was:

"Can we see Gromyko?"

And they also came to ask:

"Will he give a veto today?"

It was always an occasion when he said no. Sometimes he did it with a clipped "nyet." Sometimes he did it with a 40-minute address, delivered either in English or Russian, in a deep, bear-bass voice rumbling with a tone of ancient wrong.

Society matrons and bobby-soxers waylaid him in the corridors to get his autograph. These attentions at first annoyed, then began to amuse him — and at the same time vexed a number of delegates from other countries.

Gromyko's taciturnity thawed somewhat outside the council hall, but there was no relaxation of his iron mood in debate. His vetoes continued.

Ex-Willard Optometrist Dies At 69

Was Stepfather Of Theater Man

WILLARD—The body of Albert L. Holmes, 69, of Sandusky, was brought to the Fink funeral home here this morning where friends may call. Services will be Monday at 2 p. m. in charge of Rev. G. C. Heffelfinger. Burial will be in New Haven cemetery.

Mr. Holmes died Thursday afternoon in his home at 1406 Clinton street, Sandusky, where he had lived for a year. He moved there from Willard where he had been an optometrist and had operated a photo studio for 30 years.

He was a member of the Willard Elks lodge.

He leaves his wife, Leona; three daughters, Mrs. Horace Machin of Miami, Mrs. William Geiger of Sandusky, and Mrs. Don Schmenk of Ottawa; two sons, Dale of Toledo and Carl of Shelby; two step-sons, Donald Jacobs, manager of the Ohio theater in Mansfield, and Lawrence Jacobs of Chicago; 12 grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

★

DELLA ZEHNER

SHELBY—Mrs. Della May Zehner, 79, died Friday afternoon in the home of a daughter, Mrs. Howard Latimer of Shelby, after a long illness. She was a life resident of Richland county.

She leaves two daughters, Mrs. Latimer and Mrs. Hugh Osbun of Weller township; five sons, Chester and Sterling of Shelby, Morris of Springfield township, Howard of Weller township, John of Shenandoah; a sister, Mrs. Orpha Miller of Detroit; 16 grandchildren and four great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Monday at 2 p. m. in the Shenandoah Christian church with Rev. John MacDonald officiating. Burial will be in Shenandoah cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home.

★

HARRY EPLEY

CRESTLINE—Harry Epley, 54, of 623 South Pearl street, died Friday at 10 a. m. of a heart attack while en route to Emergency hospital for treatment. He was born Dec. 28, 1893 in Ontario.

He leaves a sister, Mrs. George Orewiler of Mansfield, and two brothers, Charles and Ernest of Crestline.

Funeral services will be Monday at 2 p. m. in the Beck funeral home. Rev. D. D. Dillon, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, will officiate. Burial will be in Greenlawn cemetery.

★

MRS. HAZEL WEBER

GALION—Mrs. Hazel Weber, 50, of 334 Orange street, died in City hospital at 3 a. m. today after a long illness. She was admitted to the hospital yesterday.

Born in Londonderry, Nov. 1, 1897, Mrs. Weber was a member of the Peace Lutheran church and the Ladies' Aid and Missionary society of that church. She had been a resident of Galion for 27 years.

She was married, Feb. 24, 1916, to Frank Weber, who survives. She also leaves two sons, Francis and Raymond, both of Galion; two daughters, Mrs. Dale Sanderlin, Lexington, and Mrs. John Schill, Galion; her mother, Mrs. Bert Febus, Galion; one sister, Mrs. Carl Fahl, Bucyrus; one half-brother, Brig. Gen. E. E. Brown, Tokyo, Japan, and two grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held Monday at 10:30 a. m. in the Snyder funeral home with Rev. Philip Auer officiating. Burial will be in the Obetz cemetery, south of Columbus.

★

DEWALT GROVE

AUBURN CENTRE—Dewalt F. Grove, 85, a retired farmer, died today at 7:35 a. m. in the home here of a son, John. He was born in Pennsylvania Aug. 13, 1862, but had lived here for 68 years.

He was the oldest member of the Auburn Baptist church and of the Auburn Grange.

He leaves four sons, John H., Robert E., and James R., here, and Samuel E. of Plymouth township; two daughters, Mrs. Frank Cole and Mrs. Guy Vanasdale, here; 11 grandchildren and eight great grandchildren.

Funeral services will be Tuesday at 2 p. m. in the Barkdull funeral home, Shelby. Rev. O. F. Swigart will officiate. Burial will be in Greenlawn cemetery in Plymouth.

Friends may call at funeral home after Monday noon.

★

MRS. A. J. MacLENNAN

GALION—Dr. and Mrs. M. L. Helfrich were called to Morrison, Ill., Friday morning by the death of Mrs. Helfrich's mother, Mrs. A. J. MacLennan. She died Thursday night at the age of 88 years.

For the past six years, Mrs. MacLennan had been a wheelchair invalid following a fracture of her hip. Surviving are the 93-year-old husband, three sons and three daughters.

★

JAMES W. PRY

CRESTLINE — Military rites for James W. Pry, who was killed in France June 16, 1944, will be held tomorrow at 2:30 p. m. in the Beck funeral home. Rev. W. L. Margard, pastor of Calvary Evangelical and Reformed church, will officiate. Burial will be in Biddle cemetery, northwest of here.

He was born here July 14, 1921, and entered military service Feb. 17, 1943. He never returned home after entering the service. His father died while he was overseas.

He leaves his mother, Mrs. Stella Pry; a brother, Harold, and two nephews, all of Crestline.

BUT SOMEHOW, SANDY, I'M USED TO IT THIS WAY---SOMEHOW I FEEL AS IF IT'S JUST LIKE GETTIN' HOME---

TERRY & PIRATES

IT IS AS MADEMOISELLE VAN GOBLIN RELATES, M'SIEU! IN MY AWKWARDNESS I ACCIDENTALLY STUMBLED AGAINST HER, PUSHING HER INTO THE POOL. I AM MOST SORRY ...I, PLEASE, YOU WILL EXCUSE ME NOW?
IF YOU WILL EXCUSE ME, ALSO, I'LL GO TO MY ROOM AND DRY OUT A BIT.
OF COURSE, MY DEAR... GENTLEMEN, COME. LET'S RETURN TO THE TABLE. MISS VAN GOBLIN CAN REJOIN US LATER.
FOR THE LUVVA PETE! THAT DANCING BABE BROKE UP MY DUST WITH MOTLEY WHEN SHE OVERHEARD MOTLEY'S SCHEME TO GET THE OLD MAN'S STATUETTE—YET, WHEN MOTLEY LIED THAT THE WHOLE THING WAS AN ACCIDENT, SHE COVERED UP FOR HER...HMMM! I WONDER WHY?

Yankees Halt Philadelphia Win Streak

Cuff Stuff

By Fred Tharp

(News-Journal Sports Editor)

LOU GREGORIO, handsome all-around Tyger athlete, could be a mighty busy fellow today. . . . He's a member of the Tyger baseball team and track squads. . . . The baseball crew plays Ashland at 12:30 and Lou is ticketed to pitch. . . . If the Tygers win they will battle Galion at 4:30. . . . Meanwhile Lou is scheduled to run on the Senior high half-mile relay team and compete in the pole vault in the district meet. . . . Four Morrow county schools will field six-man football teams next fall. . . . Marengo and Sparta will probably join Chesterville and Johnsville, also of Morrow county, in the Double-M league. . . . Other league teams are Caledonia, Claridon, LaRue and Prospect, all of Marion county. . . . Hawaii university's football team will play Army at West Point in 1949. . . . The All-America conference drew 1,828,480 fans last season. . . . Approximately 1,630,000 were paid admissions.

★

TONY GALENTO, the two-ton former boxing luminary, thinks Joe Louis will be beaten by Jersey Joe Walcott. . . . The Jersey bar-keep says, "Louis is absolutely through." . . . Tony sawed the limb completely out from under him when he also predicted that Ezzard Charles would win the light-heavy and heavyweight titles within the next three years. . . . Curly Lambeau is preparing for his 30th consecutive year as head coach and general manager of the Green Bay Packers.

★

EARL BLAIK, Army football coach, won the Army Athletic association saber in 1920 for his outstanding play in football, basketball and baseball. . . . Charley Jungmichael, 1947 Texas football guard, was the older brother of one of his own coaches. . . . His younger brother, Buddy, joined the Longhorn grid teaching staff last year. . . . He had been a star guard in 1941.

Vic Raschi Spins Neat Mound Job

By RALPH RODEN
(Associated Press Sports Writer.)

The Philadelphia Athletics are just about convinced they can't get rash with Vic Raschi.

The lanky New York righthander, who in the past two seasons had trimmed the Philadelphians three times, was called on yesterday by Manager Bucky Harris to cool off the torrid A's who barged into Yankee Stadium with a ten game winning streak.

Raschi came through in impressive fashion, shutting out the Athletics 3-0 on three hits. He walked only three and fanned seven, including the side in the ninth.

SCHEIB YIELDS FOUR

Carl Scheib, a 21-year old righthander, yielded only four hits but two of the blows were homers by Johnny Lindell and Yogi Berra. The loss was Scheib's first in four starts.

The victory moved the Yanks to within four percentage points of the second place Cleveland Indians and a half game of the league-leading Athletics.

Another fine pitching job was turned in by Fred Sanford of the St. Louis Browns. Sanford blanked the Tigers, 3-0 in Detroit on five singles. The Tigers now have lost their first six starts at home.

Excellent pitching also highlighted activity in the National league.

At Chicago, Russ Meyer spun a fourhitter in shutting out the Cincinnati Reds, 1-0. The win was his third and his second straight shutout. Andy Pafko homered for the lone run in the eighth inning off young Kent Peterson who gave up eight hits. The loss was the eighth in a row for the last place Reds.

NOSE OUT PIRATES

The St. Louis Cardinals nosed out the Pittsburgh Pirates, 2-1, in a night game at St. Louis with Stan Musial driving in both runs with a fourth inning homer off Fritz Ostermueller.

Lefty Howie Pollet went the route for the Cards and was in trouble almost every inning as the Pirates banged him for ten singles.

The victory moved the Cardinals over the Pirates into second place, a half game behind the front-running New York Giants who along with the Philadelphia Phillies, Chicago White Sox and Cleveland Indians were idle.

Scheduled night games between the Boston Braves and Brooklyn Dodgers and the Boston Red Sox and Washington Senators were postponed because of rain.

It Will Be Old Tony Zale Against Youthful Graziano

CHICAGO—(NNS)—On May 29 former Middleweight Champion Tony Zale will celebrate his 34th birthday.

This puts him on a chronological par with people like Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis, but not, unfortunately, with Rocky Graziano, whom Zale must face for the title June 9.

The same Mr. Graziano will observe his 26th birthday on June 7, two nights before he is to meet Mr. Zale beneath the stars at Ruppert stadium in Newark, N. J. Therefore, he enjoys the same eight-year age spread he had on Zale when he beat the blue-eyed Gary, Ind., gent for the title at Chicago stadium last summer.

And nobody knows this better than Zale.

You can find him, every day, in Chicago's Ringside gymnasium, working with a kind of fury he has never shown before. He knows what will happen if he loses to Graziano this time. It will be the end of the line for Tony Zale. There won't be another rematch, and then another and another. This time will do it, one way or the other.

ZALE LOOKS GOOD

The tip-off on Tony's training for the June 9 15-rounder is that Zale, by reputation, has never looked good in workouts—except this time.

This time he looks good.

"A year older, yes," says his manager, Sam Pian, "but this time there won't be the heat."

What he means, the forthcoming fight is outdoors, not, like last summer, in the heat-locked Chicago stadium when it was 85 degrees outside and 95 under the lights in the ring.

Ram Students Roar Welcome To Coaches

By CHARLEY STINE

A welcome which would have warmed the heart of the toughest coach greeted Madison high school's two new mentors yesterday as they made their first official visit to the school.

A loud roar and a few scattered whistles shook the Madison gym auditorium as football coach Ennis Walker and basketball coach Blaine Dowler were introduced to a class-day assembly by Superintendent Olan Larue.

Both coaches made short talks to the students and met personally with some of the lettermen athletes who will return next year.

HIRED TUESDAY

Walker and Dowler were hired Tuesday night to fill the coaching vacancies on the Ram staff. Jeff DeHaven resigned to take over the head football coaching job at Sandusky high school, and Richard Bailey, assistant cage coach, resigned to continue his studies at Wisconsin. DeHaven had been head coach of the grid and cage squads.

Walker is now athletic coach at Shiloh, while Dowler is coaching at Lodi. Both will report at Madison in time for opening of fall practice Aug. 20. Dowler will assist Walker with the grid squad.

★

Sale of another $200 note for the new football bleachers to a Madison student was announced by Principal Wayne Miller. Raymond Enderle, a 14-year-old freshman, was the latest to purchase one of the bonds.

Enderle was the second student to buy one of the notes. Mike Lalli, a junior, purchased one several weeks ago. Twelve of the notes have been sold.

Hail 2 Boxers As 'Comers'

NEW YORK—(UP)—After successful New York debuts, lightweight Jesse Flores and heavyweight Sid Peaks were hailed as "comers" today by many metropolitan boxing men.

Flores of Stockton, Calif., was impressive in holding Johnny Williams, Negro lightweight contender of Montgomery, Ala., to a 10-round draw.

Peaks, explosive Negro heavyweight of Louisville, Ky., scored a technical knockout over Big Johnny Shkor of Boston at 2:25 of the secnd round after flooring him three times. It was only the second time in Shkor's eight-year career that he had failed to last a distance.

Stymie Favored In Gallant Fox

NEW YORK—(NNS)—Mrs. Ethel D. Jacobs' Stymie and the Calumet entry of Fervent and Faultless are co-favorites for today's running of the $75,000-added Gallant Fox handicap, mile and three-sixteenths feature of Jamaica's closing day card.

If Stymie triumphs in the big field of 13, the world's leading money-winning thoroughbred will add approximately $80,000 to his total earnings of $823,550.

Cleveland Indians Whittle Roster to Two Over Limit

CLEVELAND—(AP)—The Cleveland Indians are going to be long on outfielders and short on catchers this year.

Manager Lou Boudreau whittled the roster down to only two catchers—one less than most major league clubs carry—when Ray Murray, promising rookie backstop, was optioned yesterday to Oklahoma City of the Texas league on a 24-hour recall basis.

Murray's departure left the Tribe only two players above the regulation 25-player limit, which must be met by next Wednesday midnight.

Boudreau will carry only Jim Hegan and Joe Tipton as his catching personnel, preferring to keep an extra outfielder among the group of eight fly chasers now on the roster. He has five infielders and 12 pitchers, two of whom probably will be released.

Boss Gets 69 In Golf Meet

PHILADELPHIA—(AP)—The boss was as good as the best of the hired hands today starting the second round of the $15,000 fifth annual Philadelphia Inquirer golf tournament.

The boss in this case being George Schneiter, from Ogden, Utah, smallish, soft-spoken tournament chairman of the professional golfers association. George fashioned nine-hole scores of 33-36 for a 69 total yesterday.

Tied with him were bantam Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., Bobby Locke, the smooth-swinging South African, and Dr. Cary Middlecoff, lanky golfer-dentist from Memphis, Tenn.

20 Drivers Roar Today

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind.—(UP)—Twenty crack racers were set to roar over the Indianapolis speedway today in the first qualifying trials for the 500-mile race May 31.

The cars and their drivers were competing for the first 33 berths in the long Memorial day classic. The trials were scheduled to last all afternoon.

Mauri Rose, last year's winner, AAA Driving Champ Ted Horn, Rex Mays, Bill Holland, and half a dozen other veterans were in the saddle, rolling for preferred positions in the marathon.

Three Horses Go After Citation, Gold In $100,000 Added Preakness Stakes

By LEO H. PETERSEN
(UP Sports Editor)

BALTIMORE, Md.—Encouraged by an off track and a sure thing financially, three owners sent their horses after Citation today in one of America's racing classics, the $100,000-added Preakness stakes.

They had nothing to lose, turf glory and gold to gain. The gold, in limited quantities, they were sure of. Only the amount was in question. As to the glory—well, there didn't figure to be much of that unless finishing second to Citation becomes an award of turf merit.

WHO'S NEXT

Being runner-up to the Calumet comet may well become exactly that, for none of the three horses he faced today figured to give him much trouble. The records—and that's about all you can go on when it comes to horse racing—have him so far out in front that the only question seemed to be: Citation first and who's next?

It will be either Bovard, Better Self or Vulcan's Forge.

Of the 83 three-year-olds nominated for the Preakness, they were the only three who did not decline the issue. For better or for worse, they were sticking to the bitter end.

At that, the end can't be too bitter. They can't help but return a dividend on their owners' Preakness investment. The gross purses of $134,870 has $20,000 set aside for the second place horse, $10,000 for third and $5,000 for the fourth—and last-horse in the field.

So financially they have to win, come what may.

But they don't figure to win much, otherwise.

So invincible has Citation been that none of the four horses who tried to match his thundering hoof beats in the Kentucky Derby cared to have any more of him. The betting was that along about 4:18 p. m. EST today—post time is 4:15—Bovard, Better Self and Vulcan's Forge will be ready to fold up their tents, too.

At the rate he is frightening off his opposition it may well be that he won't have anything left to face when it comes to the Belmont stakes next month.

Citation needs the Belmont and the Preakness to go with his Derby victory for racing's triple crown.

But there isn't anything like a sure thing in horse racing, so some 35,000 persons are expected to jam Pimlico to see if the unexpected happens.

Illinois Wins Seven Straight To Top Big Nine Baseball Race

CHAMPAIGN, Ill.—(NNS)—Illinois tightened its hold on the western conference baseball leadership today by virtue of a 3-2 victory over second-place Michigan.

Southpaw Marv Rotblatt, pitched seven-hit ball, at Champaign, Ill., yesterday to gain his fourth consecutive triumph of the season and make it seven in a row for the front-running Illini.

A crowd of 5,587, largest to attend a game at Champaign since 1923, saw Michigan's Art Dole suffer his first defeat of the season.

The Illini clinched the contest in the fourth inning with a two-run splurge.

The two teams play again today.

At Madison, Wis., Bob Wilson's 11th inning single drove home the winning run to give Wisconsin a 4 to 3 victory over Iowa.

In other conference games, Minnesota topped Northwestern 7-3 and Indiana trounced Purdue 14 to 3.

Day In, Day Out Yankee Clipper Is Best Player

NEW YORK—(UP)—Wherever the baseball clan gathers, the conclusion is inescapable—the best player in the game today is Joltin' Joe DiMaggio of the world champion Yankees.

Some days he may get just one little dinky hit—like yesterday when the Yankees snapped the 10-game winning streak of the astonishing Philadelphia Athletics, 3 to 0, as Vic Raschi pitched a masterful three-hitter.

But the hits he doesn't get on such days he almost invariably takes away from the opposition. Raschi wouldn't have had a three-hitter—he might not even have won the ball game without the "big fellow" in center field, backing him up spectacularly.

The Yankee Clipper's fielding feats have become almost common place, but that doesn't make them any less lustrous. Yesterday in the seventh with the first man on base via a walk, DiMaggio raced in to take a low liner at his shoe tops, turning a full somersault as he got the ball, but coming up with it in his glove. He robbed the batter, Ferris Fain of a certain extra base hit and since there were none out at the time it is conceivable that the A's might have been sparked to a game-winning rally had he missed.

Ohio State Looks For Clean Sweep

SOUTH BEND, Ind.—(NNS)—Ohio State sought a clean sweep today of a two-game non-conference baseball series with Notre Dame.

The Bucks won the first contest yesterday, 6 to 3, on Pete Perini's four-hit pitching.

Centerfielder Ray Gebhardt had a home run and two singles for the Bucks, while Third Baseman Bill Bernhardt contributed two doubles and a single.

Tyger Netmen Out of Meet

At least one Senior high athletic team was out of the running in district tournament play today. The tennis team bowed out yesterday at Bowling Green after winning one doubles match.

Jim Gandert and Rod Blahnik defeated Toledo Macomber 6-1, 6-1, but lost in their second match to Toledo Devilbiss, 0-6, 0-6.

Devilbiss also proved the nemisis of the Tygers in singles competition as Jim Shelly fell before Hiatt Ward, 2-6, and 0-6.

Fritz Howell's Sports Chatter . . . .

COLUMBUS—(AP)—This is a big day for more than 20,000 of Ohio's schoolboy athletes.

Eleven track meets, 16 baseball tournaments, nine golf matches and eight tennis qualifiers are due for decision before sundown as the state's high school stars vie in the district eliminations of the annual four-ply spring program.

The sites:

Track—Delaware, Uhrichsville, Cleveland, Salem, Chagrin Falls, Lorain, Bowling Green, Mansfield, Athens, Springfield and Cincinnati.

Baseball — Columbus, Bridgeport, Zanesville, Cleveland, Canton, Akron, Kent, Findlay, Toledo, Lima, Old Fort, Defiance, Ada, Athens, Dayton and Cincinnati.

Golf—Columbus, Cleveland, New Philadelphia, Canton, Toledo, Findlay, Athens, Dayton and Cincinnati.

Tennis—Columbus, Martins Ferry, Cleveland, Akron, Bowling Green, Athens, Springfield and Cincinnati.

The track, golf and tennis qualifiers will converge on Columbus next week end for the state finals, but the baseball titles will be decided the week end of May 29, following regional play next week.

★

The sprawling Ohio conference doesn't sprawl so much these days. Ashland college, a member since 1929, has said it will resign at the annual meeting in Delaware May 28. Last night Toledo university did the same thing. Ashland has had trouble with conference competition; Toledo has had trouble finding competition within the loop.

★

The Ada Boosters club (known as the ABC) will offer a unique track meet Tuesday night with three colleges—Heidelberg, Findlay and Ohio Northern—and six high schools competing. High schools are Wapakoneta, Lima Shawnee, Delphos St. Johns, Columbus Grove, Lafayette and Ada. It's the club's first venture on the cinders.

★

Warren Harding high school, with Coach Heinie Beck at the football helm, is considering a six-day summer camp for the varsity gridders starting Sept. 1. The team would go north to Gates Mills—for the training session. Such camps are permitted after Sept. 1 as the result of a referendum vote some 20 years ago by the Ohio High School Athletic association. They're taboo during the summer. This year's scholastic football season opens Sept. 17, a Friday. Last year it was launched Sept. 12.

Hipp Places On Prize List With Big 95

DETROIT, Mich.—The curtain had rung down today on Mansfield's participation in the 45th annual American bowling congress championships.

Topping the final contingent was Wilford Hipp who tallied 178-195-222—595 in the singles and the lone definite prize winner.

Dillard May Crack Record

OXFORD—(AP)—Harrison Dillard of Baldwin Wallace college, the nation's best hurdler, may crack track's all-time record for consecutive victories today.

The Negro flash, world record-holder in both the high and low hurdles, has won his last 64 events.

He needs two more consecutive wins to smash the 65-straight-mark set by Greg Rice, Notre Dame's distance specialist, a few years ago.

Dillard will make his bid against Miami university in a dual meet. He not only will run his hurdle specialties, but plans also to try the 100-yard dash.

George Washington Couldn't Beat Races

By OSCAR FRALEY

NEW YORK—(CP)—Citation the Kentucky derby winner is very likely to create a little pool in the Preakness today, but it won't put the Maryland Jockey club out of business.

Even such an illustrious bettor as George Washington found out long ago that it costs money to buck the gees gees in the old line state.

The father of our country, like many of his children, discovered this irrevocalbe fact in 1762 when he went to the Maryland races. The Maryland Jockey club, oldest of its kind in the country, then was 18 years old. It still is operating, at a healthy 201 which demonstrated clearly that it can assimilate a minus pool on occasion.

It's the Georges who pay: Along with the Toms, Dicks and Harrys.

And Washington made his contribution, although you might say George was lucky. He only dropped $6.20.

His entire stay at the races, however, cost George such a real $264.40. For he must have had a pretty chat with the pari-mutuels. Washington salvaged 852 playing cards, cutting the cost of his vacation down to $264.40.

Fortunately for him, he had not become the public figure then that he was to be a few years later. Imagine how much more it would have cost him had he been famous and plagued with hot tips.

All of these details are recorded faithfully in Washington's diary. It reads like this:

"Traveling expenses, 2 pounds, 10 shillings; servants in trip, 17 shillings. Sundry tickets to the play there, one pound. Sundry tickets to the ball there, 12 shillings; two boxes of claret, 25 pounds; horse, 50 pounds; charity, 2 pounds, 3 shillings; cash lost on races, 1 pound, six shillings.

"And from all this was deducted 17 pounds won at cards."

The deduction to be drawn from the abridged list is that Washington had himself a time. And why not, on a hundred bucks worth of wine?

For if you work it all out at current day prices, that's the liquor bill. A pound now is worth $4 and a shilling equals 20 cents. And in those days a pound didn't have undernourished ounces.

Yet, even with it the added handicap of a form sheet and a bookie's printed selections, George couldn't beat the ponies.

For there, indistinct in his own handwriting, is this:

"Cash lost on races, one pound, six shillings."

You might also suspicion that line which reads:

"Horse, 50 pounds."

It could be that Washington's losses really were $206.20.

Many's the time your mutual manager figured he brought a horse without benefit of riding it home. Maybe George had that 50 pounds, or $200, riding on a dust coated nose.

And even if his losses were only the one pound, six shillings—a present day total of $6.20—it was a lot of money for those days.

Remember, that was the time when a dollar went clear across the Potomac!

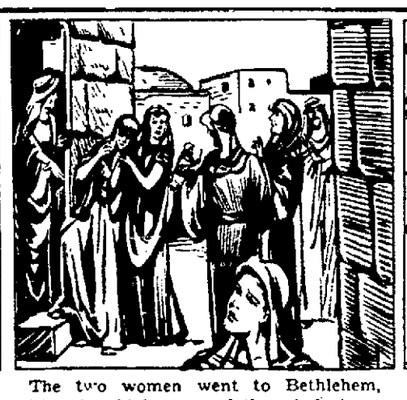
This will be followed by the school choir singing the "Lord's Prayer." Rev. Haines will give the scripture reading.

The choir will sing "Swing Low, Sweet Chariot," a spiritual. A girls' quintet will sing "Prayer Perfect." The benediction will be given by Rev. Gladfelter.

Family Loyalty---A Fine Way of Life — ILLUSTRATED SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON — By Alfred J. Buescher

Scripture—Ruth.

Naomi, a Jewish woman, living in Moab, lost her husband and two married sons, and decided to return to Judah. Her two daughters-in-law, Orpah and Ruth, went with her part way, then Orpah went back but Ruth would not leave Naomi.



The two women went to Bethlehem, Naomi's old home, and the whole town was excited about them, saying, "Is this not Naomi?" Naomi said, "Call me not Naomi; call me Mara, for the Almighty hath dealt very bitterly with me." Mara means bitter.

Now it was the time of reaping. Ruth said she would go into the field and glean behind the reapers to provide food for them. The field where Ruth gleaned belonged to Boaz, a relative of Naomi's, and he permitted her to glean with his maidens.

Naomi advised Ruth to glean only in Boaz' fields, and Boaz took notice of the Moabite woman; he praised her for her love and care of Naomi, his kinswoman, saw that she was well treated, and finally married her.

MEMORY VERSE—Ruth 1:16

OK Given On Merger

PHILADELPHIA —(AP)— The Evangelical and Reformed church has approved a merger with the Congregational Christian churches, Rev. William E. Lampe, secretary, announced today.

Under a provision of the General Synod, approval of two-thirds of the church's 34 synods was necessary for adoption. Rev. Lampe said 24 of them have voted in favor of the merger. The remaining 10 will take action within the next few weeks.

If the Congregational Christian churches approve the union at Oberlin, O., June 17-24, the new denomination will be known as the United Church of Christ.

Older Youth Class Meets

SHELBY—The first regular meeting of the newly-organized older youth and young adult Sunday school class at the First Methodist church will be held Sunday following the 10 a. m. worship. The class was organized at a meeting of the youth and young adults Thursday night following a pot-luck supper.

Officers elected include Mrs. Leo Price, president; Salo Boor, vice president; Mrs. Robert Burdge, secretary; Edwin Dick, treasurer; Mrs. Barbara Griffeth, pianist and Miss Patricia Ford and Miss Martha Jean Boor, assistant pianists.

Hold Conference

The Fourth Quarterly conference of the Evangelical church will be held next Thursday at 7:30 p. m. at the Main Street Evangelical church. Rev. E. E. Nietz, district superintendent, of Columbus, will officiate.

Mansfield Churches Mark Feast of Pentecost Sunday

A number of the city's churches tomorrow will observe the Feast of Pentecost, or Whitsunday. In celebration of the event, pastors will preach on the power and influence of the Christian religion.

Pentecost is the seventh Sunday after Easter and marks the descent of the Holy Spirit on the Apostles at Pentecost. The day is known as the birthday of the Christian church.

Pastors who will give special recognition to Pentecost include Rev. C. W. Stoneburner of the First Methodist church who will speak on "This Is The Day"; Rev. J. C. Melchert, St. John's church, who will preach on "Crusading For Christ"; Rev. Charles L. Shook, First United Presbyterian church, whose topic will be "The Power of the Church."

Rev. Herbert S. Garnes, St. Luke's Lutheran church, "Pentecost and Its Lesson"; Rev. Willard J. Shawk, Main Street Evangelical UB, "The Fellowship of Pentecost" and "The Christ of Pentecost," and Rev. Samuel U. J. Peard, rector of the Grace Episcopal church, who will mark the Feast at his morning services.

School Urges Bible Study

Sixty members of the Maple Grove school parents' committee would like to see religious education continued at the school—if at all possible.

They voiced their opinion last night at the annual school picnic. At present, religious instruction is made available to the Maple Grove pupils through contributions from the school committee treasury. Rev. Jack Mellick is instructor.

Musical entertainment was furnished by the Dillon band and an impromptu "helpful hints" session featured household hints for the women and farm labor saving ideas for the men.

A donation for the cancer campaign was approved by the membership during a business meeting conducted by Mrs. George Secrist, president.

Mrs. Richard Fisher and Mrs. William Finney were named on the entertainment committee for the September meeting.

Your Social Security . . .

The Social Security Administration, 405 Richland Trust Building, here asks and answers questions about social security raised by persons in the Mansfield area:

★

Q. What if my wife has worked under social security too?

A. She will draw benefits from her own account if that amount would be greater than what she would draw as your wife.

★

Q. I am in the retail business for myself, and have a young fellow working parttime. Do I have to pay social security for him?

A. Yes, if you have one or more employes you must collect and pay social security taxes.

★

Q. Who can get monthly survivors benefits?

A. Children under 18. Mothers with children under 18 in their care. Widows 65 or over. Aged dependent parents.

★

Q. Do any other countries have a social security plan in operation?

A. Yes, among the countries having the most comprehensive plans are Great Britain, Belgium, Denmark, France, The Soviet Union, New Zealand, Australia, and Chile.

★

Q. Why should I report to the social security office, when I reach 65?

A. In order that you may be advised of the rights and benefits due you through social security.

★

Q. Can I keep on working and draw my social security payments?

A. Not if you are working in employment covered by social security, and make more than $14.99 a month. However, work may be done for the county, city, state, federal governments, churches, schools, farmers, friends, and still draw your benefits from social security.

Wins Queen Award

COLUMBUS — (AP) — Beverly Cochran, a 19-year-old sophomore, is Miss Ohio State University of 1948. Miss Cochran, brown-haired, green-eyed daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank D. Cochran of Columbus, won the finals last night at a downtown theater.
